

VINODHINI ANANDHAN

KALARIPAYATTU
PERFORMER & INSTRUCTOR

Vinodhini Anandhan is a highly skilled Kalaripayattu practitioner with over 14 years of dedicated training. She is an alumna of Sadhguru Gurukulam Samskriti—an alternative education system founded by Sadhguru—where she honed her expertise in this ancient Indian martial art. In recognition of her depth of mastery, Vinodhini now serves as a teacher in the Kalaripayattu department at Sadhguru Gurukulam Samskriti, guiding and mentoring the next generation of practitioners.

AWARDS AND ACCOLADES

Vinodhini has performed at numerous prestigious events, both in India and internationally, showcasing her talent and promoting Kalaripayattu. Throughout her career, she has competed at both the state and national levels, securing 3rd place in the Meipayattu category at the National Kalaripayattu Championship, organized by the Indian Kalaripayattu Federation.

PERFORMANCES & CONTRIBUTIONS

Mahashivratri Festival (2020-2026) Isha Yoga Center Coimbatore:

A key performer in this annual night-long celebration dedicated to Adiyogi, which draws thousands of participants from all over the world. Vinodhini has been an integral part of the celebrations, presenting traditional Kalaripayattu and contributing to the event's powerful and charged atmosphere.

Save Soil (2022): A global movement focused on raising awareness about soil degradation. Vinodhini's Kalaripayattu performances contributed to communicating the importance of environmental sustainability through cultural expression.

Sama Festival (2025), Dubai: Performed as part of Project Samskriti at the Sama Festival, in collaboration with Ape Chimba, presenting Kalaripayattu to an international audience.

Workshops Conducted by Vinodhini:

Deeply committed to taking Kalaripayattu to a global audience, Vinodhini has conducted Kalaripayattu workshops internationally across Dubai and in major Indian cities, including Pune, Bengaluru, and Chennai.